

Foresta Bench

The Foresta Bench comprises of two longitudinal larch timber beams, slightly tilted in the middle for water run-off. this Bench can be supplied with staggered or parallel timber beams, to allow using the ends as a cycle stand.

The steel structure is powder coated and has a middle armrest, supplied with two types of support, depending on the type of installation. Installation can be pre-drilled for anchors or below ground installation.

Specification:

Materials:
Frame - Powder Coated Steel
Seat - Timber

Dimensions

H: 530mm
W: 3000mm / 3600mm
D: 450mm

