

Fuente Fountain

The Fuente Drinking Fountain made from a steel tube, available in either rectangular, circular or elliptical section. The nickel-plated brass tap is a push button type with a spring return that is usually closed. The structure is fixed to the base of the tank, which has an outlet and overflow pipe. On the back of the tank is a place to connect the supply tube. The drain can be removed to clean the tank.

Specification:

Materials:

Post - powder coated steel; corten steel; stainless steel

Dimensions

H: 990mm
W: 296mm
D: 100mm

(Technical Drawings for variants available on request)

