

Union Panorama Bench

The Union Panorama Bench offers a welcome alternative to the linear public benches that speckle many public realms. Inspired by the natural curves of people in movement, the Panorama is an elegant sculpture composed of organic shapes and exquisite materials. The Panorama's long and sleek form is specially intended for placement in the corridors of such areas as luxury shopping areas, designer hotels and museums. It functions both as a bench that can accommodate up to twelve people, and as an eye-catching design piece that reflects the value of the public space. Each Panorama is customised and made to order by Swedish craft workers with skills handed down from generation to generation. This sleek bench is offered in a multitude of colours and materials. For interior spaces, clients are free to choose hand-sewn leather seats. For outdoor environments, clients may combine the fiberglass base with teak timber to create the elegant Panorama Yacht Bench.
