

Union Bench

The Union Bench is an item of pure luxury. Manufactured from fibreglass and finished with a high-quality leather cushioned seat, this bench gives you the choices that no other type of indoor public furniture does.

Fibreglass and leather are available in a wide variety of colours. Custom upholstery options are available to suit your needs. This bench adapts seamlessly to any indoor surrounding. It promises superior seating dynamics as it brings people together in a single arrangement while still allowing for individual seating options.

The Union Bench addresses the core aim of town-planners, architects and interior designers to enhance the life of the public to improve peoples experience in their location. Choose any colour fibreglass you desire and what seat material suits you, including hand-stitched Swedish leather and Belgian loop-cut wool.
